“ I am so sorry to hear about Alphonso... I did not know anything had happened to him. I just found this out tonight. I remember how much fun we had in class. I guess it is a little late, but we are sending our love and prayers to you all anyway.

“ Hello to the Scott family! While you do not know me, your husband/father did. I work on FLW, MO. I was at the service last Friday. You mentioned how much he loved to watch TV, Mrs Scott. Were you eve around when he watched a TV show, on TRUE TV, called "Lizard Lick Towing"? I was the one who told Alphonso about that show. After he watched it the first time, he called me just laughing and said how much he enjoyed it. We talked about that show and shared laughs about it. He came to call me his "Lizard Lick Sister"! LOL! Well, tonight, Monday, 11 Jun, is the New Season opener for that show. I will be thinking of Alphonso as I watch it....and, laughing! He was a good friend that I had known since he was in the military. God Bless Each of You and Keep You!!! Roberta Wilson

“ Mr.Scott thank you for all your help and support. I was very saddened to hear of your passing, but the memory of your bright smile warmed my heart. You were always there to fix things when this commander messed up her schedule and a mountain of other things. THANK YOU Mr. Scott Now you will truly see his Star in the East! Rest in Peace My Dear Brother :-)

“ My heart goes out to each and everyone of Al's family during this time of mis-belief.. As schedulers at FLW he and I talked on the phone or via e-mail daily for the past 12 years. (He took my place at 3d CM Bde when I moved to DPTM.) Though I have never met his family he did speak of them and shared with me his visit to his daughter while in the hospital in TX ?? a few years ago. He and I both had tears in our eyes when he told the story. He loved his family. You could tell by the smile on his face, the look in his eyes and the sound of that laugh. He will be greatly missed as a co-worker/friend. I will keep the family in my prayers - God is the only one that can wrap his arms around you to provide comfort and peace. He is available 24x7 to call upon..
