

Buddie Eugene Miller

November 18, 1938 - October 13, 2015

Buddie E. Miller, born on November 18, 1938 departed this life on Tuesday, October 13, 2015. Buddie was the son of John and Emma Miller of Stoutland, MO. Buddie accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at a very early age, as a member of the Stoutland First Baptist Church.

Buddie was born and raised in Stoutland, Missouri. He attended and later graduated from Stoutland High School. Buddie soon married his high school sweetheart Patricia Tremain and to this union five children were born.

Buddie was a very talented barber and managed several barbershops throughout his life for Gino Moreno Enterprises, San Francisco, CA. In addition to barbering, he also ran a dairy farm for a time on his farm.

Buddie enjoyed farming, riding horses, and going to horse sales. He was extremely proud of his family and believed that was his greatest accomplishment.

Although Buddie had to travel quite often for his job, he was eventually able to relocate back to Stoutland within the last several years. Buddie and his family were fortunate enough to spend quality time together that they will always cherish and never forget.

Mr. Miller is survived by his four children: Vicky Burns (Steve) of Lebanon, MO, Melinda Smith (Ross) of Stoutland, MO, Chris Miller (Missy) of Stoutland, MO and Joey Bowling (Alan) of Lebanon, MO; nine grandchildren: Cole Burns (Jessie), Cali Rogers (Ryan), Collin Burns, Shannon and Shelby Smith, Joseph and Evan Miller and Taylor and Drew Bowling; six great grandchildren: Lexi and Jaxon Burns, Brandon, Nollen and Will Rogers and Brayden Watson; three siblings: Doris Smith (Elliott) of Stoutland, MO, Faye Ross of Brea, CA and Paul Miller (Marie) of Stoutland, MO; other relatives and friends.

Buddie was preceded in death by a son, Robin, his parents, John & Emma Miller, four brothers, Harold, Jimmy Dale, Russell, John Hycel, two sisters Wanda Howard and Willene Snoderly, two half brothers Denzil and Rothford, and one half sister Marie Young.
