“ When Uncle Eddie would come for a visit his favorite store was Central Hardware. He would take our mother, my sister Cindy and myself. Of course I didn't understand the attraction of this experience until I become an adult. Eddie was always joking with us, laughing, and kidding around. My sister was his favorite, he thought of her like a daughter he never had, and walked her down the aisle on her wedding day. Our dad had passed a few years earlier so he was the right man for the job. We still cherish the things he brought us home from Germany when he was stationed there, as well as our memories. We will miss you and always love you.
