“ I thought about the day I saw you, Jack, in the American University Student Union and my husband and I remember the good times we had visiting with you and Iris when you lived in Virginia. We both thought about Iris in recent days and I looked her up. We are so sorry to hear of her death. We will always remember her for her kindness. Jared, your mother was my college roommate and very a good friend. Marian and John Witiak

“ Iris and I met at the quilt shop in Buckhorn , she was interested in a beginner quilting class and she and I spent time working on a quilt which she continued to work on finished when she started meeting at the church with The Mount Gibson Stitcher's . I had the pleasure of quilting her quilt top and she was so proud of her accomplishment. She was a Gracious and sweet woman that loved her family which was so obvious by the smile that filled her face when she spoke of them. It was a great pleasure to have met and spent time with her.

“ As a very young boy I had Mrs. Hale as a teacher in the Dixon School District. I am now almost 62 yrs. old. I cannot remember if I had her in elementary school or middle school. None the less, I remember Mrs. Hale as a very kind person. My condolences to the family and May God bless you during this very difficult time.

“ I worked with your mother for several years at Waynesville Schools. She was joy, a real treasure. So kind and always positive. Even after we went to different buildings, when we met, she treated me as a special friend-a gift. Ms. Iris was always one of my favorite people. Prayers for your family.
