“ Deepest sympathy to Chris, Craig, Tyler and the rest of the Danielsons. James and I were classmates. His sharp sense of humor kept me in line.

James was a nice guy who never took himself too seriously. His love of his family was SO obvious. When asked about his sons or grandchildren, his eyes would light up and that smile would appear. That smile was so readily present!

James demonstrated how to live gracefully. Although he faced huge health issues, he was courageous and faced each day. Your father/grandfather/brother was a great example of how to live. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ James was a great friend. He and I played lots of golf when we were younger. I picked him up at Food Hood, TX after his basic training. We went to Galveston. In high school he would make the sloppiest underhanded layups. James was a positive and peaceful man. He never had fights in school. He loved Jesus and his church. He also loved his long time friends. It has been an honor to know and live some of this life with him. Enjoy heaven my friend. Who knows, you might be able to watch the Cardinals from there.

“ What a great guy! Met him back in the day when he was Manager of Oreilly Auto Parts in St Robert He always had an upbeat attitude, a smile on his face and always a pleasure to work with. I'm sure he is in a better place now.
