“ *Janis,
This is not goodbye my friendI will forever remember you. You left your footprints on my heart. I was honored to work beside you. Thank you for allowing me to be part of your life. My condolences to your family, your children and your sweet grandbabies your are so proud of. You earned your wings Janis with an "is"... I Love you Chica ...May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind always be at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, And rains fall soft upon your fields. And until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand.*

“ I will always remember Janis' nickname for David, and the way she honored his instruction about “no David stories!” the first time I visited Waynesville. What a loyal sister.

Rest in peace Janis. Say hey to Jesus for us!

“ I have never known a sweeter person than Janis. We always had a bond that meant any time we met we could just pick up as if no time had elapsed at all. We always shared a bit of a smile that our names "Janis" and "Janis" were spelled the same! Not the "ice" of most.
