“ She was one of the guys who welcomed me to Japan. When I went to swings and after work, one of my most fondest memories was sitting in the day room after work spit shining our boots while drinking Soju and Dr. Pepper. We had a blast. It certainly made the shining go a lot quicker. Rest in peace brother, you will be missed!

“ Shep was a mentor and a friend. He left the Air Force too early, he left this world too early, but he will forever live on in our hearts and memories. God bless his family.
