“ I don't have the right words to say and I wish I could take the aching hearts away.

My Uncle Karen was the epitome of a great man, he and Aunt Ingrid made sure I had a ton of great memories to hold onto and was present for all of my milestones whenever possible. Most girls only have the privilege of a loving dad, I also had the luxury of five uncles who extended unconditional love to me. A noble man of few words albeit tons of wisdom, Heaven gained another angel.

I'm going to miss you Uncle Karen. Hugs and prayers of comfort, discernment, and better days to your loving family. I Love and Miss You all, tons extra, during your bereavement. 💔🙏🙏
