“ I'll never forget the time we were driving to work and my gas peddle got stuck. She was in the floorboard on passenger side and reached over to pull up on the gas pedal. Or she thought it was the gas pedal. It was actually the brake and my foot was on it. We were terrified. But, later on we laughed about it. You were the person who lead me to Christ. I love you and will miss you my friend. RIP 🙏💔
Love you always Anna
