“ I had known Marilyn since we served together at Ft. Polk in 1978. We had such fun back then. She was a unique person, and I am so enriched from having known her. Many years have now passed, and I am so sad to have to say goodbye to her. I had hoped until the end that she would get better, but was not to be. My thoughts are with her sons and their families, and all the rest of her family, to include her furry baby. I am sure Marilyn went gently into that exalted place. Rest in your peace, Marilyn. Until we meet and talk again.
