

Michael James Moise

June 8, 1974 - June 6, 2018

Michael James Moise, son of Roy William Moise and Loretta Sue (Simmons) Miesowicz, was born June 8, 1974 in Creve Couer, Missouri.

As a young boy, Michael grew up in the Waynesville, Missouri area. He and the family moved to Pulaski County, Arkansas where he graduated from high school.

Michael was an avid St. Louis Cardinal baseball fan and Oakland Raiders football fan. He watched every game that he could.

Michael loved his family dearly, especially his children. He was always checking on them and the rest of his family. He was an early riser and did most of the cooking at home, which he enjoyed doing.

Michael passed away Wednesday, June 6, 2018 in his home having attained the age of 43 years. He will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those that knew and loved him.

Michael is survived by his father: Roy Moise of St. Robert, MO; mother and stepfather: Loretta and Charles Miesowicz of Lebanon, MO; three children: Romelio, Darien and Savannah; fiancé: Martie Englund of Springfield, MO; one brother: Daniel Moise of Elizabethtown, KY; one sister: Michelle Warren of St.

Robert, MO; four nephews; three nieces; paternal grandmother: Ruth Moise of St. Robert, MO; other relatives and friends.

Services were held at 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, June 12, 2018 in the Memorial Chapels and Crematory of Waynesville / St. Robert with Pastor Mike Prater officiating. Several family members and friends recalled their wonderful memories of Michael. The songs "Go Rest High on that Mountain" by Vince Gill, "Why" by Rascal Flatts were played and the congregation sang "Amazing Grace".
