She spent most of her childhood in Oklahoma. Her family moved to Missouri in 1941 when her father got a job in construction building Ft. Leonard Wood.

After graduation from Waynesville High School in 1945, Nyda moved with her sister Barbara to St. Louis, MO and worked at Ralston Purina until meeting her husband Robert who was recently returned from serving his country as a Marine in WWII. Nyda and Robert married in 1948 and lived in St. Louis and later Cahokia, IL. Together they had six children and tragically Robert died at the young age of 44 leaving Nyda a young widow.

Nyda and her children moved to Waynesville, MO where her parents and brothers lived. She worked at Waynesville School System and Ramada Inn where she met Harold Wells. They married in 1967 and to that union was born one son.

Harold and Nyda moved to Devils Elbow and lived many years in the Waynesville area, owning several businesses together. Nyda especially enjoyed the years she owned a green house in St. Robert and loved socializing with all of her customers and friends. Nyda also was a beloved grandmother and cared for several of her grandchildren over the years.

In 2008 Harold and Nyda retired to Springfield, MO where they lived out their remaining years together.

Some of Nyda's happiest times in life were spent dancing, listening to Big Band music, gardening, reading, watching old movies, making friends, and enjoying her family time. She and Harold were members of the Hickory Hills Baptist Church in St. Robert, MO. Nyda was known for her outgoing personality and she never met a stranger. She was a kind hearted and loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend who will be greatly missed.

“Nyda was such a beautiful spirit. I was always amazed that she had such energy, even while raising seven children. I so enjoyed all the times I spent at her home. She was a beautiful and welcoming lady to all. I am so saddened that I will not be able to celebrate her life with her family but will be thinking of Nancy, Bobby, Tricia, Timmy, Tommy, Susan and Andy, and their respective families. Much love and condolences to a wonderful family! You did well Nyda!”
