“ It started out as a normal sisters day out. Rita Rae, Judy and I all got together to have a fun day reminiscing of places in our younger days. Little did my sister know her 2 daughters and granddaughter had planned a 80th surprise birthday party for her with just us girls. We drove by a place where we were to meet her 2 girls and granddaughter and they were out along a curb with big 80 number balloons. At first she thought we might be running across a yard sale but when she got a closer look she saw Vicki and Carla and Abigail. She was so surprised to see them! We had a wonderful night talking, doing crafts and eating birthday cake. Little did we know we only had a few more days to have her here with us. I thank Jesus for that wonderful special time that he gave us. She is now having a get together with her mom and dad and other loved ones that have gone on before her! Sister I will miss you so much, but it is not good by but see you later. Love, your youngest sister Nancy
