“ So sorry to hear about his passing. He was my Driver's Ed teacher and I always thought he had nerves of steel. To this day whenever I am out driving and a ball rolls into the street I still think of him and those driving videos as I am breaking the car! He was a nice , a good instructor and also a handsome man. Praying for your peace and comfort during this time.

“ So sorry to hear of Bob's passing, but Bill and I know he has accomplished much in this life and now is gone on to his reward. We are so thankful to have known him through the Pulaski County Gideon Camp. He loved the Lord and was a responsible witness to his faith and convictions. Bob made a difference in this world, and thanks to Jesus, we know Bob was welcomed in Heaven for the rest of his eternal life. May your family be blessed with memories of a life well lived.
