

Sandra Sue Lueth

February 22, 1937 - September 18, 2025

Sandra Sue traded her recliner command center for a front-row seat with God on September 18, 2025 with her granddaughter by her side. For years she spoke of wanting to be with Him. This week she finally got her wish and ran into His arms. Undoubtedly, entering the gates of heaven the best dressed with style and pose.

Sandra was born on February 22, 1937. She was eccentric in many ways, and was not the “typical” grandmother. In her younger days, she was a true beauty and diva through and through. Always put together and never without make up and her hair done up. Sandra had a love for QVC shopping, caramel danishes, starbucks coffee, Whopper and chocolate shakes. From her recliner or her bed, she called the shots like only she could. Jersey Boys and Creedence Clearwater Revival were often the soundtrack to her day. Sandra was a believer who drew strength and comfort from her faith. She was especially fond of listening to Joel Osteen who gave her hope to keep her eyes on God's promise that she would one day be in His presence.

Sandra is survived by her daughters, Cathy Miller,(husband Ralph Miller,) Kim Mueck, (husband Ed Mueck.) She leaves behind grandchildren: Geoff Mueck, partner (Cassidy Shull), Ed Mueck, Kim Sanderson, (husband Nathan Sanderson), Joseph Miller, partner (Season Kuiper) and Jeremy Miller. She was also delighted in her great-grandchildren Kaiden Stivers, Lanceton Davis, Lauryn Hulett, and Eric Howe, Brendan Miller, Jamie Miller, as well as 4, great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father Orville Werner mother Irene Bahnks, two daughters, Susan Crock, Jeri Staub and son, Robert Crock Jr and Two sisters, Cindy and Marsha

In keeping her wishes, a private remembrance will be held at another date.- because she never really wanted an audience. Instead, honor her by pampering yourself a little extra, keeping your coffee hot, and eating dessert any time of the day.

Arrangements are under the care and direction of Memorial Chapel of Richland.
