“ Sincere condolences to the Dalgetty family on your loss. Although we did not know your family well, your son, Nathan Dalgetty was a schoolmate to my son, Bob West, and daughter, Karen Kluchonic and spent some time at our home when he was a teenager, mostly during the time that he wrestled and played football at W.H.S.##imported-begin##Maggie Quinn (AKA: Michels)##imported-end##

“ I live in Minneapolis now but try to keep up with what is going on back home.
I read about Steve’s son last year ...that was very sad. Steve and I were in the same grade in school and I just wanted to say that Steve came upon my younger brother one night being attacked by a bunch of soldiers. Steve pretty much saved my brothers life that night by helping him without even being asked. Steve was a very nice and very brave man...we will always remember him. I am so very sad and sorry for your loss.
My most sincere and heartfelt condolences go out to his family.

“ Cheryl,
You and the girls are in my thoughts at this difficult time. My heart breaks every time I think of the sadness you must bear.
My sincerest wish is that you draw strength in those that are dear to you and friends, like me, who will be more than willing to hold your hand when needed, to listen quietly when needed, dispense hugs when needed, and yes, to wipe away tears if needed.
Do call. I will be there. Myree###imported-begin###Myree Herbig###imported-end##
