“ Although I have lots and lots of amazing memories with my grandma a few of my favorite memories would be when she would fill our mouths with whipped cream just to make us laugh and tickle us until we almost peed our pants. another one of my favorite memories was when me and my cousin Amaya would play dress up with her clothes, purses, high-heel boots and clip on earrings and have the time of our lives, also watching movies together specifically Wonder Woman and maybe that's why she's my favorite superhero now. while watching movies she never failed to make us a delicious dessert. And even though we didn't live as close anymore she never failed to text, call or even leave a voicemail if you missed her call for every holiday, birthday and even small accomplishments just to remind us she loved us and how proud she was of us. I'll never forget her raspy voice or her loud laugh or the way she made everyone feel special in their own ways. I am so grateful for all those happy memories that I got to have with her. I love you grandma ❤️ 🥹
